| Epilogue | |

Karina Farnlucher – Karina has been in Headley Theatre Club for 40 years and has had many diverse roles which she has thoroughly enjoyed, including 'Calendar Girls', 'The Flint Street Nativity', both productions of 'Fawlty Towers', various versions of 'MacHamlet' and in 'Noises Off'. This is her second appearance as the Vicar.

Mel White – I had my first taste of Headley Theatre Club in an Old Time Music Hall in 1986 and have been hooked ever since! Over the years I have taken on a wide range of roles: running the junior section, co-writing and directing pantomimes, lighting, backstage, serving as committee secretary and currently treasurer. I have performed in many shows over the past 36 years but my more recent favourites have included Flora in 'Flora's Peverel', Michelle in 'Allo 'Allo', Polly in 'Fawlty Towers' and Magrat in 'Wyrd Sisters'.

Mike Pennick – My first role with HTC was in the previous Vicar of Dibley production in which I appeared as David Horton. I am delighted to be tackling the wonderful Owen Newitt this time round. It's certainly different to David & my other previous role as Col Von Strohm in 'Allo 'Allo'. I hope you all enjoy the show.

Jonathan Neil – I joined Headley Theatre Club in 2012 and have appeared in various productions. I never look back on the past – always to the next role. Always leave them wanting more and never outstay your welcome. Sound Advice.

Chris Millard – Chris comes to Headley Theatre Club with a long history in stage productions. From early days in the Reading Progress Theatre as the Captain in Büchner's Woyzech and Bill Sykes in Oliver! he has ranged widely in stage appearances. In Germany he won the BAOR Directors' Competition in 1992 and performed in a number of roles including Roger Dervish in Richard Harris' Outside Edge. His ambition is to extend the Millard theatrical dynasty through the rest of his family.

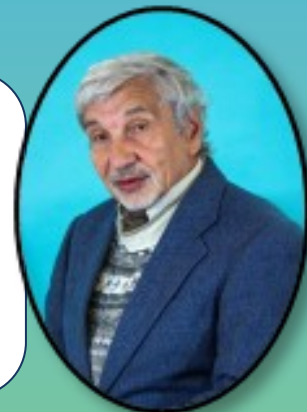

Annaliese Farnlucher – has been with Headley Theatre Club for most of her life! She was the Sleeping Beauty in this year's panto, and took two parts in our tour of 'Flora's Peverel' this summer.

Jo Smith – Jo first trod the Headley stage in January 1979, as a comic character in 'Ali Baba'. Since then he has acted, directed and written for the Club in many guises and disguises.

Neil Hardinge – I joined Theatre Club to support a friend and progressed from making tea and moving chairs to manning the sound desk and then the sound & lights. When casting needs a bewildered old man with not much to say for himself then I get to tread the boards. From 'Are you being served?' to Dudley Moore sketches – I know my place.

Martin Wellen – Since joining Headley Theatre Club in 2000, Martin has been involved in many productions firstly doing lights and sound, and backstage roles. He is now on stage, enjoying every production he is involved in. His roles include various Dames in our Pantomimes, and characters in 'Allo', 'Fawltly Towers' and 'Noises Off'.

Rufus Kendall – I joined the club a few years ago and have played a variety of roles – from the Dames in the pantomimes to Edmund Blackadder in 'Blackadder goes Forth'. I was given a warm welcome into the Club 'family' when I joined and I love welcoming new members in turn.
