

Bridleway No.15 – “Park Lane”: Bacon Lane to Smithfield Lane

A broad entrance and finger post (rather set back) on Bacon Lane (Pic 1) leads to a well-maintained bridleway (Pics 2, 3 & 4).

This track ends at a junction with BW14 and Smithfield Lane (Pic 5, reverse direction).

Nobody seems quite sure why this is called ‘Park Lane’, but fans of Monopoly will be pleased to note that it passes a track to the left leading to Mayfair riding stables.

Notes from original booklet:

In the Spring there are bluebells on the banks and two exceptionally large beech trees on the South side.

Pic 1:

Pic 2:

Pic 3:

Pic 4:

Pic 5: Junction with BW14 and Smithfield Lane (reverse direction)

